

South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

FROM MONDAY August 16, to MONDAY August 23, 1742.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27.

WE hear from several Parts of the Country, that infinite Multitudes of black Worms or Caterpillars coming out of the Earth, threaten Destruction to the late promising Crops of Corn and Grass; large Fields being in a Day or two cut down and devoured by them, and the Ground laid bare. Confiderable Mischief has likewise been done in the Pastures near this City, and many are obliged to mow sooner than they intended, to save what they can. Indeed it behoves People to watch their Fields narrowly, for where no Worms have been seen on one Day, there have been Millions the next. In the Country some People to secure their Fields, run narrow Trenches round them; others where the Worms are already among the Corn, find an Advantage in running through the Fields backwards and forwards with Ropes between two Persons, and bending the Corn, thereby shake them down two or three Times a Day; and hope in a few Days their time will be over.

June 24. On Saturday last the Schooner George, and the Sloop Joseph & Mary, two Privateers belonging to this Place, fell down the River, in order to proceed on a Cruise against the Spaniards.

Newport, May 21. Last Week Capt. Power in the Victory Privateer, sail'd on a Cruise against the Spaniards.

July 5. Last Week a fine large Sloop upwards of 100 Tons, arrived here, being a Prize taken by the Revenge Privateer Capt. Allen. She is said to be an English Vessel, and was taken by the Spaniards about two Years ago, coming from Jaimaica.

She has 60 Hogsheads of Sugar on Board, which had been taken from the English, and condemned at Barracoa, from which Place she was going to Cape Francois to be sold to the French, but is now come to a better Market. Capt. Allen was informed, that a very rich and well-arm'd Schooner was to sail from Barracoa for Cape Francois two Days after the Sloop, which he made no Doubt of meeting with.

July 12. Capt. James Allen Commander of one of our Privateers, sent in here last Lord's Day, a Spanish Privateer Schooner called the St. Joseph de las Animas, of 16 Carriage and 14 Swivel Guns, and Forty Men, commanded by Don Francisco Per Domo, which he took near the Windward Passage, she belonged to Barracoa, rowed with 30 Oars, and draws but six or seven Feet Water; she was condemned on Wednesday last.

It is reported, That this Don has taken 18 or 19 English Prizes, and had a great many more Hands, but had distributed 'em on board several Prizes which he had lately taken from the English.

Annapolis, June 28. 'I suppose, by this time you have heard by Express (for I was told one went to the Chief Justice of the Three Lower Counties on Saturday last) of a Design amongst the Indians in Somerset and Dorchester Counties, they having given great Reason to think they intended to disturb the Inhabitants there: The Confession of one of them says, they were to massacre all the white People, and proceed to Philadelphia, and there to be join'd by their swarthy Brethren the French, and Northern Indians; and that their Design was to have been put in Execution about the the full Moon: But this Story I have too imperfectly to tell you rightly. A Number of Arms and Quantity of Ammunition was this Day sent over to the Eastern Shore.

CHARLES-TOWN, August 23.

By a Vessel which arrived here on Friday last we are informed, That on Monday before she met with Capt. Dandridge in his Majesty's Ship the South-Sea-Castle (a 40-Gun Ship) to the Southward not far from Port-Royal; and the next Day saw a Snow and Sloop join that Man of War, which by the Description must certainly be those commanded by Capt. Bartlett and Capt. Chapman; and as the Wind was then at North-East, it is not to be doubted that they soon joined the Rest of the Fleet, and have been before this at St. Juan's River where the Nine Spanish Vessels were seen, and off St. Augustine also.

We hear, That Capt. Frankland before he left this Place released the Dutch Snow Prize which he brought in from his last Cruise; And, That one of the Tobacco Ships re-taken by him in his former Cruise and brought into this Harbour in June last, hath Permission to sail to Great-Britain, in order to carry some Publick Dispatches.

We are assured also, That this Government would now take off the Embargo which all the Shipping at present lie under, but that it is thought most prudent first to receive some certain Intelligence further relating to the Enemy; for which Purpose one of our Pilot-Boats hath been ordered to follow the Fleet, and bring what Advices Capt. Frankland shall find proper to send by her.
